

Leave the Indiana law the way it is without outside interference from out of state and in state banks.